NOW COMES the Plaintiff in the above-captioned case, Comcast of Massachusetts III, Inc., and it respectfully Moves that this Court postpone the Scheduling Conference presently scheduled for January 11, 2006 to some date certain at least three weeks in the future.

As grounds, the Plaintiff states:

1. Plaintiff's Counsel and the Defendant have been in contact with each other and they are in serious, substantive negotiations which could result in an amicable resolution to the Civil Action.
2. The Parties need additional time to pursue certain matters in these negotiations. The additional time is necessary because these matters require the Defendant obtaining some documents and sending them to the Plaintiff's Counsel.
3. Postponing this hearing could save the Parties considerable costs and/or expenses which could help in the ultimate resolution of the matter through negotiations.
4. The Defendant assents to this motion.

In further support of this motion, see affidavit of John M. McLaughlin

Certification pursuant to LR D. Mass 7.1 (A) (2)

Plaintiff's Counsel certifies that he spoke to the Defendant and she fully assents to this motion.

Respectfully Submitted for the Plaintiff,

By Its Attorney,

Now comes John M. McLaughlin, Attorney for the Plaintiff in the above-entitled action, and, on oath, states the following:

1. I have been in contact with the Defendant and we are in serious, substantive negotiations which could result in an amicable resolution to the Civil Action.
2. We need additional time to pursue certain matters in these negotiations. The additional time is necessary because these matters require the Defendant to obtain some documents and send them to me.
3. Postponing this hearing could save the parties considerable costs and/or expenses which could help in the ultimate resolution of the matter through negotiations.
4. The Defendant assents to this motion.
